

Notification: September 11, 2007 Draft Presentation

The Baltimore City Commission for Historical & Architectural Preservation (CHAP) to Update its "Guidelines, Policies and Procedures"

The Baltimore City Commission for Historical and Architectural Preservation (CHAP) and the Department of Planning are pleased to announce an initiative to update the City's Historic Preservation Guidelines, Policies and Procedures. This will be CHAP's first comprehensive review of its Guidelines since 1980. The Guidelines are being improved to better support historic preservation for the benefit of Baltimore's citizenry. The updated Guidelines will be available to property owners, developers, designers, and the general public working in the context of Baltimore's 30 local Historic Districts and over 125 individually listed Historic Landmarks. The City of Baltimore has hired the professional consulting firm of John Milner Associates, Inc. to assist with this preservation planning initiative.

The Public at Large is encouraged to attend the following three Public Presentations to be held in the Department of Planning, 8th Floor, 417 E. Fayette Street:

- | | | |
|------------------|---------------------------------------|---------|
| • September 11th | Public Presentation at CHAP Hearing | 1:00 PM |
| • November 13th | Presentation of Draft at CHAP Hearing | 1:00 PM |
| • December 11th | Presentation of Final at CHAP Hearing | 1:00 PM |

Additionally, CHAP welcomes comments and recommendations that will assist the City in creating model historic preservation Guidelines. Written comments and recommendations may be sent to the attention of:
